

Evaluation Checklist

For Your Activities

When you add an activity to your course, you should also include a checklist for your students to help them evaluate their own work or give feedback to their peers. Think about 3–5 criteria that show the student has done a good job. What would you like the student work to look like? How should it work? The criteria you determine should be measurable and tied to the goal of the activity.

e.g. The image is well lit

---

---

---

---